Chapter 17 introduced product costing, the schedule of cost of goods manufactured, and the basic cost flow of a manufacturer. In that preliminary presentation, most cost data (e.g., ending work in process inventory, etc.) were given. Chapter 18 showed how cost data are used in making important business decisions. How does one determine the cost data for products and services that are the ...

Fund accounting is an accounting system for recording resources whose use has been limited by the donor, grant authority, governing agency, or other individuals or organisations or by law. It emphasizes accountability rather than profitability, and is used by Nonprofit organizations and by governments. In this method, a fund consists of a self-balancing set of accounts and each are reported as ...
